Open to creators of fine arts and crafts
Priority given to Salem County Artists

The Salem County Art Tour's Holiday Artisans Show is an indoor event on the campus of the Salem County Career and Vocational Technical High School at 880 Route 45, Woodstown, NJ 08098. A food truck will be available at the show.

JURYING PROCESS: Jurors look for quality arts and crafts representing a wide variety of artistic focus. Work must be original, creative, handmade, reflect a unique vision, and be of consistent quality. The finished product must reflect a high level of skill. Fine artists may sell prints and printed merchandise of their original work. Absolutely no "craft kits" or manufacturer designed items will be accepted.

HOW TO APPLY: See application for submission options.
Send to the Coordinator:

-Completed application which includes contact information, space requested, a 250-word artist's statement which may include art career, experience, technical skill, media and techniques involved, what inspires you, and/or your vision.
-Photos with 4-6 images depicting all forms of your work that demonstrate the quality and best depiction of your craft. Plus, 1 image of your display or a small mockup of how you propose to display your work. Each image needs to be named with your last name then first initial then a number (e.g., Jane Doe's first image would be DoeJ1.jpg etc.)

Note: Photos and portions of the artist statement may be used for show promotion.

DEADLINE: Applications, along with images, must be received NO LATER THAN JULY 15, 2023
All Artists MUST jury each year. Spaces will be based on entry postmark.

JURY PROCESS & NOTIFICATION: An impartial, knowledgeable team of jurors will consider each applicant's work. You will receive an email notification of your status on or about August 30, 2023.

If accepted, you may not change mediums or add categories that have not been juried. If you do, you will be asked to stop selling those items. The Jurying Committee reserves the right to request an artist remove items that are not up to the standards that were juried into the show.
